WILLIAM AND MARY PLAYS GOOD BALL AND WINS FROM ROANOKE

Locals Lead From Start. Addison's Fielding Feature of the Game

William and Mary, taking the lead from the start, had little difficulty in defeating Roanoke College here Saturday by a score of 7-2.

In the first inning Hubbard's hot grounder was cared for by Hutson. Games was hit by pitched ball. Tucker singled. Garth was safe on Kneisley's error. A single by Peachy scored Garth and Games. Addison fanned. Peachy scored on Jones' fast one to Herndon. Runs 4, hits 2.

After the initial innings William and Mary took things easy. Garnett took Shiers' place on the slab and punched three of the six men facing him. Shackelford was sent in the box for the eighth. Two of the visitors struck out and Kneisley was out on Zehmer's perfect throw to second. Addington officiated on the mound in the final inning and ended the game in a one-two-three style.

The visitors broke the ice around the score board in fifth inning. Barnhardt singled and stole second. Jones muffed Fallwell's easy fly. Kneisley's hot one advanced them one base. Herndon's single scored Barnhardt and Fallwell. Craft's fly was easy for Garth. Runs 2, hits 2.

The feature of the game was Addison's one-hand-running-dive stunt in which he robbed Hutson of a hit in the fourth.

Score by innings:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
W. & M.	4	0	0	0	2	0	1	0	x	7	6
Roanoke	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	0		2	3

Batteries: W. and M., Shiers, Garnett, Shackelford, Addington and Zehmer; Roanoke, Herndon and Belvin. Hits off Shiers 2 in 5 innings, off Garnett 1 in 2 innings, off Shackelford 0, off Addington 0, off Herndon 7. Struck out by Shiers 2, by Garnett 3, by Shackelford 1, by Addington 1, by Herndon 5. Base on balls, off Herndon 1. Hit by pitched ball, Games and Allender. Sacrifice hits, Hubbard, Zehmer 2. Stolen bases, Tucker 2, Peachy, Barnhardt. Umpire, Mr. F. R. Savage.

The inter-society contest has been indefinitely postponed on account of the Philomathean debater and Phoenician orator being asleep on their job.

WILLIAM & MARY LOSES FIRST CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Yellow Jackets Bat Shiers Out of the Box. Ferguson Flings in Superb Style

William and Mary lost the first championship baseball game to Randolph-Macon at Ashland Saturday in a loose one-sided contest. Judging from the score, it looks as though the "Yankee" hoodoo is still following the team. There is either something radically wrong or else we have a veritable Jonah in our midst. Surely, fifteen hits and nine errors spells "bush league" manipulation of the pill.

Shiers was allowed to officiate on the slab for the locals, but the total of nine hits in seven innings set the authorities thinking, and Addington was sent in from the bench. The slaughter continued. The Yellow Jackets hit six safeties and Garnett was sent in to retire the last man.

Appalling as it may seem, yet the locals scored three runs in the first inning, when Hubbard, Games and Garth touched Brown up for three clean singles. Brown was replaced by Ferguson, who allowed but two hits, punched and walked eleven men.

The game grew intensely exciting when Garth singled to left scoring Shiers, who was taking lunch around the second plate. A thousand hats went into the ether, two thousand hands beat ferociously together and countless speaking boxes warbled forth, "well done, good and faithful hitter!"

Tucker attempted to steal home in the fourth but was arrested, tried and called out on Walker's pretty peg from the left garden. Shiers was robbed of a hit by Anderson's successful one-hand dive "in die luft" for the ball.

NOTES ON THE GAME

Was the heavy hitting appalling? The Yellow Jackets sure did have their batting eye with them.

Some errors, eh?

Garth's hit was pleasing to the optics.

Why not warm up the pitchers before sending them into the game?

Randolph-Macon is leading in the Eastern Virginia Collegiate Association.

The William and Mary fan's prayer—

"Turn backward, o'score, in thy flight

Do not reach the century mark to-night."

G. C. Outland was called home Saturday on account of the severe illness of his father.

The Academy baseball team will play Hampton High School Thursday at Hampton.

NEWPORT NEWS WINS FROM THE ACADEMY IN THE NINTH INNING

Newton's and Prichett's Errors Lose Game. Pitching Battle Between Cox and Prichett

The Academy baseball team lost their second game of the season to Newport News High School by a score of 4-3. The game from alpha to omega was an exciting exhibition of baseball. Prichett distinguished himself by "punching" ten men and allowing but five hits, three being bunched in the first inning, while Cox allowed four hits and fanned five. Carter's batting and Palmer's timely hit in the sixth were the features of the game.

HIGH SCHOOL SCORES

ACADEMY IN THE EIGHTH

Jackson walked and stole second. Palmer's Texas leaguer for two bases scored Jackson. Cox hit Newton who scored second run on Prichett's and Jones' sacrifices. Davis is thrown out at first. Hits 1, runs 2.

HOW THE GAME WAS LOST

In the ninth inning, Bennett was an easy out at first. Carter singled to center. Prichett fumbled Dean's grounder, losing an excellent chance for a double. Stuart got first on fielder's choice, Dean being thrown out at third by Newton. Cox sent a hot one to short. Newton lets ball go between his legs and Carter and Stuart scored. Martin fanned. Hits 1, runs 2.

Jones was thrown out at first. Davis singled. Crockett hits in a double. Score: N. N. H. S. 4, Academy 3. Umpire, Mr. F. R. Savage.

W. AND M. QUARTET ENTERTAINS

The William and Mary Quartet has recently gotten out a very attractive programme which it is now rendering at various points throughout this section. Last week the boys entertained very successfully good-sized audiences at Yorktown and Hampton. A number of other places will be visited during the remainder of the session.

As is generally known the quartet is composed of Messrs. F. M. Crawford, J. F. Barnes, E. L. Wright, and H. R. Van Horne.

KNOCKING VS. BOOSTING

Every sensible person readily admits that there is a distinct difference between knocking and boosting. All do not agree, however, as to what constitutes each. Some people, who, seemingly, talk more than they think, contend that to utter a word of disapprobation against the established order of things is to knock; others take a common-sense view and realize that it is wholly possible at times to boost the interests of an institution or organization by failing to put the stamp of approval upon the deed done.

The Flat Hat recently spoke disapprovingly of some existing conditions here at William and Mary, and, as a result, came in for a small amount of adverse criticism. It developed, however, that some of those who were the most out-spoken against such a course, would have the College paper deprived of the privilege to speak unfavorably concerning anything pertaining to the College and its interests. In other words, they would have the paper become a mere advertising sheet, making only favorable comment on all things, regardless of how strong both individual and public opinion might dictate to the contrary. But happily such "rot" is not adhered to by the great majority—the belief still prevails among us that a rigid censorship of the press is diametrically opposed to democratic principles.

The Flat Hat has not had, has not now, and will never have the slightest desire to knock anything or anybody. Its policy is to work for the good of William and Mary College. If, in its opinion, the greater good can be accomplished by using a few words of censure, then it will take the liberty to do so. If, on the other hand, it feels that praise should be given, there shall certainly be no hesitancy about bestowing it. Henceforth, let it be known that The Flat Hat is not a mere automaton to be directed at will by some whimsical dictator—No, it is a publication which reserves the right to speak its own convictions.

THE TOWN CLOCK

Much to the sorrow of the townsfolk and the students the town clock is dead. The ill-fated demise occurred only a few days ago, and came as the greatest surprise to every one. For years the clock had measured off the fleeting hours, and all believed its days would be long upon the earth; but a higher power, in its wisdom, said: "Well done, good and faithful servant—but it is enough."

Many question, however, the wisdom of the town council in thus mercilessly and seemingly unjustifiably withdrawing its small appropriation for the clock. It certainly supplies a much-felt need, and should, in some way, be kept running. Without it there are none but that feel they have suffered a distinct loss—and especially is this so of the students of the College. In fact, it had become almost a necessity with some students.

But the town council could hardly be expected to keep the clock running exclusively for the benefit of the College. So, if the town is to be without a time-piece, why not let William and Mary do a magnificent thing by placing in the tower of her new Assembly Hall a large clock which would be a benefit as well as an ornament? What think you of the idea?

WHAT ABOUT THE STUDENT SENATE?

The prospect of a student senate is indeed gratifying to the student-body. A certain amount of student government is essential to the success of all higher institutions of learning. That a student senate is practicable here is evidenced by its success in other schools where conditions have been much less favorable. Let the senior class take this matter up at once. The faculty is willing and anxious to help in getting the organization on foot.

William and Mary lost her initial game in the championship series, but she is not out of the running. Yesterday Randolph-Macon lost to Hampden-Sidney, and it is wholly possible for the latter to lose to William and Mary in Saturday's game. Let everybody work for a victory!

The following is taken from The Trinity Chronicle:

"We congratulate the Chanticleer board on its selection of a staff for next year. Mr. Bagley has had considerable experience in connection with the preparation of this year's book, he is a man of ideas and ability, and is above all a hard worker. Under his able guidance, we prophesy a very successful issue of the Chanticleer next year."

The Chanticleer, of which Mr. C. R. Bagley has been chosen editor-in-chief, is the Trinity year book.

Mr. Bagley was a student here in 1910-11, and is remembered as having been a most excellent student. While here he was a contributor to the Literary Magazine.

The triangular debate recently held between the University of Virginia, Johns Hopkins and the University of North Carolina, the last-named institution was easily the winner. The question discussed was with reference to the payment of tolls for passage through the Panama Canal.

Y. M. C. A. LECTURES POPULAR

The series of lectures now being given before the Y. M. C. A. by Dr. W. P. Clark is proving quite popular. The initial lecture which was an introduction to the general theme—South American problems—was given last Tuesday evening to a large audience. The subject is an intensely interesting one, and the speaker tells about the political and social conditions of our sister republics in a very attractive way. The series will probably last throughout the remainder of the College year.

W. & M. PROFESSOR CONTRIBUTES

The April number of the Sewanee Review contains an excellent contribution from the versatile pen of Dr. J. L. Hall, of the Faculty. The article deals with the religious views of Thomas Jefferson, and is full of valuable information concerning this phase of the great statesman's life. Among other things the writer disproves the somewhat oft-repeated assertion that Jefferson was an atheist, showing him to have believed in the existence of a Supreme Being, though not in the divinity of Jesus Christ.

ALL IN READINESS FOR SCHOOL FAIR

The arrangements for the School Fair, to be held here on Friday, are now complete, and those in charge of the work have left nothing undone that would add to the comfort of the large crowd that will attend.

Besides the various contests of an athletic and declamatory nature, a parade, etc., a prominent feature of the programme will be addresses by Governor Mann and Hon. J. D. Eggleston. The speaking will take place on Cary Field.

The following is the day's programme: 10:00 a. m.—Baseball game, Cary Field; 10:00 a. m.—Corn judging contest, main building of College; 11:30 a. m.—Announcement and award of prizes for exhibits, front of main College building; 1:30 p. m.—Formation of parade, Courthouse Green; 2:00 p. m.—Address by Supt. Eggleston, Cary Field; 2:30 p. m.—Address by Gov. Mann, Cary Field; 3:00 p. m.—Athletic contests, Cary Field; 4:30 p. m.—Announcement and award of athletic prizes, Cary Field; 8:00 p. m.—Declamation and recitation contests. College chapel.

On August 25-30th inclusive, there will be held in Buffalo, N. Y., under the patronage of the Honorable Woodrow Wilson, the Fourth International Congress on School Hygiene. This congress will be the first of its kind ever held in America, and there will be delegates in attendance from all the leading nations of the world. A comprehensive programme covering the entire field of school hygiene will be carried out.
